Reports:

Anthony Chefalo: Last week was a busy week with lots of meetings for me. On Tuesday I attended the AAC meeting to see Maria Lima speak about the College Senate, it was informative and entertaining. Wednesday Ralph was at the SA meeting to discuss Residence Life and answer some general questions. On Thursday I worked with Tom to crunch some numbers in the budget to move things around in Line 20. I also attended a delegation meeting, Al Norman, CRT, and AC. All were very good and I am especially impressed with how the presidents are working on their projects in CRT. This weekend was a busy night at the Knight Spot with NRHH and JCC hosting events on Friday and Saturday, respectively. I enjoyed both. Earlier tonight I met with Ralph to catch up on some things since we haven't really been able to meet much recently.

Heidi Morris: The banquet stuff is mostly done. I went to a CRT meeting – it was fun. And Geneseo Idol was phenomenal!

Jessica Vigers: I went to two delegation meetings over this past week, they were great. I met with the PR committee tonight – they're simply awesome.

Tom Johns: I had my OA interview on Tuesday and I went to the SA meeting on Wednesday. I also attended the CRT and AC meetings on Thursday and Geneseo Idol on Friday. Budget hearings were last week and continue through this week. I went to the PR committee meeting tonight and I worked on our budget.

Jarah Magan: This past week I worked on my budget along with Stephanie and Anthony. Also, I planned more specifics for the upcoming program.

Stephanie Condello: CRT's meeting went well – I'm just in the middle finalizing our fundraisers.

Audrey Cooper: We've had many informal delegation meetings to finish up our Geneseo banner. Thus far, it is shaping up to be amazing. I attended the NRHH dance-off and it was fun.

Brendan Quinn: I went to NACA in Boston for AC. I also went to Geneseo Idol Friday – congratulations to Joe Kotsis! I've been working on stuff for Mini No Frills too.

Holly MacKenzie : None

Jen Maietta: The dance to support ANAD raised $90.63 and NRHH is going to throw in the extra to donate an even $100 to ANAD. We had 113 people there and Suf Shahin and Nick Moran tied for first and Kate Huggler came in second. Anthony and I hung Out of the Blues last night.

Nick Guy: Brendan, Brandon and Kristina and I went to NACA, hopefully you'll see new speakers and performers coming in from that conference. Wednesday was the Blues Explosion in the Knight Spot, which was very successful.

Open Reports :

Mary: On Friday night I went to the wind ensemble concert – it was fun. On Saturday I went to the amazing hockey game and now we get to play Plattsburgh!

Danielle : I also went to the hockey games both nights and I was impressed by the amount of school spirit we have. I also went to the ultimate Frisbee tournament on Saturday – the turn-out was great!

Tom: This past Sunday was Chamber Singers' first concert, and my family came and filled up a whole row.

Announcements :

Anthony Chefalo: Tomorrow I will be meeting with Dr. Bonfiglio. Please let me know if there is anything you would like me to address with him. I am looking to put together a policy fact book that can be handed out to hall councils and Res Life Staff members that will cover topics from CAS, SA, Res Life and any other sources you guys can bring up. This week's SA open discussion topic is the Career Services office. Please come with questions. I will be attending the NEACURH Conference this weekend with the delegation and I am really looking forward to it. I also have a few general announcements. The first is that Campus Wide Elections packets are now available and are due by Friday to the SA office. I also have a general reminder that you need to have Kate, Nancy or a member of SA Exec sign your Drawing fund forms when you turn it in. We need that to ensure that the forms were handed in on time.

Heidi Morris: This is my last meeting on E-board. Good luck to Sam, Danielle, Dave, and Jess! I'm wearing Tom's shirt – Tom is fantastic! Signs of the week: stars, penguin, water, home, dorm.

Jessica Vigers: I'm really excited about the conference!!! And I'll be working on my program for the conference this week.

Tom Johns: King Lear open tomorrow.

Jarah Magan: Coffee Talk is March 31st. I would like to have a meeting with the Programming committee next week – I will send out an e-mail this week. Lastly, the Wellness Expo is this Wednesday, March 1st from 11am-3pm in the Union Ballroom.

Stephanie Condello: I'll be meeting with multiple committees on Wednesday. There is a CRT meeting this Thursday. I'm also preparing a report of the campus-wide program for Anthony.

Audrey Cooper: We will be heading to Mini No Frills with a great delegation, and we'll be breaking our journey all the way to Bridgewater with a stop at my house on Thursday. I cannot wait. Also, I will be attending close to a million budget review meetings – again, I cannot wait.

Brendan Quinn: Listen to Audrey if you want to know what I'll be doing.

Holly MacKenzie: Townhouse applications were due today at 4pm. Housing deposits are due after Spring Break! Hall will close next Saturday at 10am for Spring Break – get out by then and enjoy your break!

Jen Maietta: OTMs are due March 3. Applications for NRHH are due March 1. This weekend, NRHH will be presenting our bid for Outstanding Chapter of the Year and NRHH reps from the northeast will be voting on it. I have also submitted a bid for NRHH Member of the Year and I'll let you know how those turn out next week!

Nick Guy: This Friday at 7pm in the Kinetic Art Gallery there will be a new exhibit called Contortions – there will be a reception the day it opens. Starting Wednesday, applications for AC will be out - if you're interested speak to me or to Steve Rehler. There are individual applications for each position, our office is right outside the SA office.

Open Announcements:

Elaine: The PR committee started putting together the yearbook. But we still need program write-ups and pictures. Our bad list includes: Allegany, Genesee, Jones, Livingston, Nassau, Onondaga, Ontario, Putnam, Steuben, Suffolk and Wyoming. Just send in a little paragraph to irc@genesee.edu. We want to thank Monroe, Saratoga, and Wayne for their contributions. And Jess will make us cupcakes if we all send in stuff by Monday, March 6.

Jarah: I wanted to remind everyone that this Wednesday is the Wellness Expo. And you can donate your bone marrow. There will also be pilates and other different exhibits. And there will be prizes!

Isabel Regina Carrasquillo Award: to Adam and Jen, the President and Vice President of Jones hall – for doing a great job in their residence hall and with CRT.

Old Business: None

New Business:

58-0506 Wyoming's Poker Tournament

Brad: Wyoming is putting on a poker tournament and we're very excited about it. The tournament will be open to residents of Wyoming and Putnam. There will be first, second, and third prizes, the prizes will be gift certificates to Silver Screenings, the movie theater, and to Mia's. We're expecting about 20 people.

Nick: Do you have the cards and the chips?

Brad: We have the cards, and we're working on getting the chips

Holly: I know that Ontario and Monroe have chips that you can borrow.

Heather: Have you had people sign up?

Brad: They've been signing up and we're joining forces with an RA so he'll spread the word. People don't have to sign up, but we want to try to get a count for food ahead of time.

~Brad leaves

Mary: I think the silver screenings gift certificate is a good idea – not many people use that business.

59-0506 Jones' Italian Night

Dana: We wanted to have a big dinner for the whole hall, but we decided that we can't feed everyone. We're setting it up to be like a real restaurant in the hall – there will be a hostess and waitresses and busboys. People have been signing up outside the Vice Presidents' door and they can sign up for whatever time they want. We're using CAS, and they're charging a lot for the food.

Heather: Why are you asking for $70?

Dana: We didn't want to make it a two week reading. And we're charging admission, so we're making up the money that way.

Heather: What will the entertainment be?

Dana: We have residents who are providing the entertainment – there'll be a unicycle and a guy who is keeping his act a secret, but NARD was busy and cannot come.

Brendan: Is hall council eating? Because that's important.

Dana: Yes we are, I already made my reservation.

~Dana leaves

Mary: This is one of the greatest ideas ever.

Becky: It's a really cool idea

Danielle: I like that they're having people make reservations like a real restaurant, its very realistic.
